

Grenaa harbour, Denmark

Photo: ©Janick Weberpals

12 - 16
June
2017

Pharmacoepidemiology Summer School in Denmark

Department of Clinical Epidemiology is hosting its fourth annual summer school.

A week-long course titled Assessing risks and benefits of treatments: methodological issues is a collection of advanced master classes taught by international experts in pharmacoepidemiology and comparative effectiveness research.

Who should participate?

PhD students, postdocs, clinicians, and other professionals seeking to advance their skills and knowledge. Basic to intermediate knowledge of pharmacoepidemiology and biostatistics is assumed.

Program and faculty

Day	Topic	Faculty
Monday-Tuesday, 12-13 June	Advanced topics in pharmacoepidemiology	Prof. Alan Brookhart University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Dr. Leah McGrath
Wednesday, 14 June	Missing data issues	Prof. Irene Petersen University College London
Thursday, 15 June	Self-controlled designs	Associate Prof. Ian Douglas London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine
Friday, 16 June (half day)	Perinatal and reproductive pharmacoepidemiology	Prof. Irene Petersen University College London Prof. Vera Ehrenstein Aarhus University

The summer school will be held at Kystvejen's Hotel and Conference Center in Grenaa on the coast of Jutland. Grenaa is accessible by air, ferry, and bus. The nearest airports are Aarhus (AAR), Billund (BLL), and Copenhagen (CPH).

Sponsored by the Department of Clinical Epidemiology
Aarhus University Hospital,
Aarhus, Denmark

Course fee: Public sector: DKK 6,500
Private sector: DKK 11,500

Early Bird DKK 6,000
Early Bird DKK 10,000

Course fee

For participants from the public sector, we are pleased to offer a reduced course fee of DKK 6,500 (Early Bird offer DKK 6,000) thanks to generous support from the Department of Clinical Epidemiology. Course fee for participants from private sector is DKK 11,500 (Early Bird offer DKK 10,000).

Course fee includes:

- Full tuition
- Five-night stay at Kystvejen's Hotel and Conference Center in Grenaa*
- Breakfast, lunch, tea/coffee, cake, and fresh fruit Monday-Friday
- Course certificate
- A complimentary course dinner

* Participants will stay in private rooms. All rooms have complimentary wifi and flat screen TV with international channels.

Registration

Registration and payment deadline: 15 May 2017

Early Bird offer: Registration and payment by 1 March 2017

30 seats are available and registration is taken on a first-come, first-served basis.

Register here:

<http://www.kea.au.dk/en/Summerschool.html>

Cancellation policy

Your registration is final when we have received your payment. The course fee is non-refundable unless the summer school is cancelled.

Venue

The summer school takes place at Kystvejen's Hotel and Conference Center in Grenaa, Denmark. Grenaa has been a market town since 1445, and today it is the largest commercial center of Djursland.

The summer school venue is located between the forest and the beach. Grenaa Beach, just across the street from the hotel, is the second best beach in Denmark with shallow water and the finest sand. Ideal for swimming and walks along the coast.

The summer school offers social activities during the week including a course dinner.

Contact

If you have any questions, please contact Coordinator Helle Vester at summerschool@clin.au.dk or +45 87168223

Department of Clinical Epidemiology

Aarhus University Hospital
Olof Palmes Allé 43-45
8200 Aarhus N
Denmark

Registration and more info at:

<http://www.kea.au.dk/en/Summerschool.html>

Department of Clinical Epidemiology

Kystvejen's Hotel and Conference Center
Grenaa, Denmark